Fifth Sunday of Easter

'Made in Heaven'

Throughout the weeks of Eastertide we are running a series of articles on the Sacrament of Marriage and its central importance in the life of the Christian community. The articles are written by parishioner David Chiswell who has taught, formed and prepared couples for marriage for many years in his capacity as a leading member of Catholic Marriage Care, and has a wealth of wisdom and insight to offer through these reflections.

David writes... John Donne (1572-1631) one of the great English poets described marriage in his sermon at the marriage of Sir Thomas Egerton thus "Marriage among Christians, is herein Magnum mysterium, A Sacrament in such a sense; a mysterious signification of the union of the soule with Christ; when both persons profess the Christian Religion, in general, there arises some signification of that spirituall union".

Thomas C. Pinckney, in a homily given at the Community Bible Church in Williamstown, MA in 1997 identified three ingredients that seem to be the key to turning the mystery into a miracle:

Harmony

The unity between husband and wife is not something that happens regularly or occasionally, the two are essentially one always. I am one with my wife in the same sense that I am one with my body, we are both built up and honoured and growing. If my wife hurts, I hurt. It's rather like playing in an orchestra; if we have the same music sheet, if we both understand rhythm and timing, the music sounds wonderful, if not.....

If this sounds easy, it is not; we must work at it constantly.

Sacrificial Love

Bishop Curry at the wedding of Prince Harry to Megan Markle included the following "He (Jesus) didn't die for anything he could get out of it. Jesus did not get an honorary doctorate for dying. He wasn't getting anything out of it. He gave up his life, he sacrificed his life, for the good of others, for the good of the other, for the wellbeing of the world... for us.

That is what love is. Love is not selfish and self-centred. Love can be sacrificial, and in so doing, becomes redemptive. And that way of unselfish, sacrificial, redemptive love changes lives, and it can change this world."

Perfecting in Marriage

Aristotle distinguished three meanings for perfection:

- Something is perfect when it is complete, it has all the requisite parts.
- Something that is so good it could not be better.
- Something which has attained its purpose.

All three of these apply when we are seeking to achieve perfection in marriage; we do it by helping each other and through awareness of the different elements that define perfection. We might ask ourselves the following questions:

Have I done everything needed to complete this task? Is there anything I could do to contribute helping my spouse in seeking perfection?

How could I contribute to making something the best ever?

Does what I'm doing make something fit for purpose? Do we, as a couple, agree on the purpose of any task, event or happening in our lives?

Regina Caeli

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
For he whom you were worthy to bear, alleluia.
Has risen as he said, alleluia. Pray for us to God, alleluia.
Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
For the Lord is risen indeed, alleluia.

Sudan Crisis Appeal 2024

There will be a spontaneous collection at all Masses this weekend for CAFOD's Sudan Crisis Appeal. The situation has become desperate very quickly. This crisis threatens to become the worst in living memory. Please give to our collection today, and Gift Aid your donation if you can. Very few aid agencies can get in. But the Church in Sudan is already responding and asking us to help them do more. More information at the back of this Newsletter.

Bible reading this Thursday

We are a lovely group that meet to read and then reflect on the Bible, if you would like to join us and learn then please come along to the church on Thursday 2 May @ 6.45pm. John McCormack

Can we have your jigsaw puzzles please!

The donations from second-hand books and CDs go directly towards the upkeep of our church grounds. Our devoted team of volunteer gardeners rely on the proceeds to pay for everything needed to maintain our gardens and beds. Proving even more popular than books and CDs are Jigsaw Puzzles! If you have any at home that you are finished with, please consider donating them to the church – they can be left on the table outside the parish office.

When leaving items for Nina outside office hours... There is a large grey container available underneath the table directly outside the parish office for people 'dropping off' items for Nina. If the container is full, please take away your items and return either when Nina is around or once the box has been emptied. Thank you for your cooperation.

News from St. Peter's School

The summer term has got off to anything but a summery start, with a very chilly return to school after the Easter break. No matter how long we feel we have to wait for summer to arrive, when the good weather gets here the days and weeks seem to fly by. It is very hard to 'live in the moment' therefore, even though we get frequent reminders of the need to this for our own wellbeing in the midst of an increasingly hectic world. Matthew's Gospel tells us of Jesus speaking the following words "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own." For me, this strikes a realistic balance of paying attention to the here and now, both the tasks and duties we have at hand, whilst not letting ourselves be overly weighed down by things that lie both ahead of us and often beyond our control. We work hard at St Peter's to ensure that the pupils enjoy their school days as much as they possibly can, aiming to hit the right note between helping them to grow and develop for the future, and at the same time directing them to enjoy every day for the friendship, learning and happiness it brings. In March we conducted our annual survey to capture pupil voice in the same way that we survey parents and carers twice a year to get their views on a range of issues across the school. The survey showed that pupils enjoy the challenges that their learning brings them, appreciate the hard work and dedication of the staff in school that teach and care for them, and enjoy the loving and welcoming environment that strives to make their St Peter's school days the best days of their lives.

Tony Higgins, RIP

With a UK General Election due sometime this year, politicians will be looking for our votes. We have a responsibility as Catholics to make sure that parties commit to tackling issues such as poverty and injustice. Raising our voices and contacting parliamentary candidates as a parish community will send a strong signal to those standing for election in our local constituencies. A Year of Encounter is a joint initiative between CAFOD and St. Vincent de Paul Society (SVP), equipping Catholics to ask key questions of local candidates at the key moments. ## Admittance to Hospital?

When a Catholic is admitted to hospital, the family should ensure that the Catholic Chaplaincy is contacted so that appropriate support can be given. It is suggested that the patient have a note to give to hospital staff on admission, notifying staff that they are Catholic and would appreciate the Catholic Chaplaincy service. This could be followed up by a telephone call from the family to the ward to ensure the request is actioned. When a person is due to go into hospital, please also let your parish priest know so that he can administer the Sacrament of the Sick where appropriate.

CARJ 40th Anniversary Event - Saturday 25 May

Catholic Association for Racial Justice was established 40 years ago on 16 June 1984 at a meeting of approximately 25 'founding members' from a variety of ethnic backgrounds. From the beginning, CARJ was seen as a black-led, independent organisation where ethnic minorities could find support and a voice, and where people of all backgrounds could work together for racial justice. Despite challenging times in society and in the church, CARJ has secured remarkable achievements along the way.

Since 2006 CARJ has worked in schools, delivering workshops on racial justice, training youth ambassadors and supporting the general educational attainment of black and minority ethnic young people. To mark this important milestone, CARJ is holding a national event on Saturday the 25th of May @ 10.30am at Amigo Hall, St George's Cathedral London SE1 7HY, at which CARJ will launch a new 'Racial Justice Agenda for Change', which will be the vision for the work of CARJ for the future after these four decades of tirelessly working for racial justice in society. The Agenda for Change builds on the experiences and learning of the past 40 years and puts forward a strategy for bringing about greater equality and creating a racially just church and society, a goal which continues to elude us in the 21st century.

(Open to all and Free to attend, with lunch served and a Sung Mass)

Job Vacancies and Volunteering Opportunities

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF PORTSMOUTH

Please follow the link for current vacancies throughout the Diocese:

<https://www.portsmouthdiocese.org.uk/about-us/other/jobs>

OAKLANDS CATHOLIC SCHOOL & SIXTH FORM COLLEGE

We currently have vacancies for Foundation Governors on our Governing Body.

The Governors of Oaklands Catholic School work as a team, in close cooperation with the Head Teacher and all staff.

Governors ensure the clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction; holding the Head Teacher to account for the educational performance of the school and its pupils; the performance management of staff; overseeing the financial performance of the school and making sure its money is well spent.

Foundation Governors must be practising Catholics and specifically ensure that the religious character of the school is preserved, that the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed; that the religious education curriculum is in accordance with the Bishop's policy for the Diocese.

We believe that all pupils and members of staff should have the opportunity to fulfil their potential whatever their background, identity and circumstances. We are committed to creating a community that recognises and celebrates difference within a culture of respect and cooperation.

We appreciate that a culture which promotes equality will create a positive environment and a shared sense of belonging for all who work, learn and use the services of our school.

We recognise that equality will only be achieved by the whole school community working together – our pupils, staff, governors and parents/carers.

We know that there are members of the whole Oaklands Catholic community who will be prepared to join us in this important function and give their time to help us continue improving the school's performance and the lived and educational experience of all our pupils.

Oaklands would benefit from people with experience in project management, HR & people management; accountancy/financial management, marketing and logistics. But fundamentally we are looking for an enthusiasm to do right by the school; the staff and our pupils.

No previous 'board' or governance experience is necessary; there is an induction programme, a wide range of additional training and mentoring for new (and existing) governors. Incidentally, there are some great benefits in terms of personal development and experience in an important and dynamic field.

If you are willing to take on a challenge, please contact the Clerk to the Governors to ask any questions and/or register your interest c.colley@oaklandscatholicschool.org

New Lectionary – CTS launches website

The Vatican's Dicastery for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has confirmed the approval by the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales for a new Lectionary. The Lectionary, which includes the scripture readings for Mass and the sacraments, will come into use in parishes in England & Wales and in Scotland from Advent 2024. The Catholic Truth Society (CTS) is the publisher, and they have launched a new website. Pre-orders for the Lectionary will begin soon. Here are some FAQs from the site.

Why is the Lectionary changing?

The lectionary is changing as part of the continuing process of revising liturgical translations. The process began with the Roman Missal in 2011 and has continued to work through all the other liturgical rites. The changes are intended to make the biblical translations more faithful to the original languages, using better and more up-to-date biblical scholarship and to use a text which is more proclaimable.

What translation will the new Lectionary use?

The new lectionary will be using the English Standard Version – Catholic Edition of the Bible and the Abbey Psalter.

When will the Lectionary be available to pre-order?

The new Lectionary will be available to pre-order after Easter 2024.

When will the Lectionary be in stock?

The Lectionary will be in stock in October 2024.

When will the new Lectionary need to be used?

The new Lectionary will come into force on the first Sunday of Advent 2024.

Can parishes keep using the old Lectionary?

No, parishes will need to change over to the new lectionary on 1st December 2024.

Which countries will be using the new Lectionary?

This version will be used in England and Wales, and Scotland.

Other than the translation of Scripture, will there be any other key differences between the new Lectionary and the old one?

The lectionary will have a fully up-to-date Proper of Saints including the new universal and national feasts that have been instituted since the publication of the last lectionary.

How many volumes will the new lectionary be?

The new lectionary is currently set to consist of 4 volumes:

Sundays, Solemnities, Feasts of the Lord.

Weekdays: Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time (weeks 1-9), Lent, Easter.

Proper of Saints: December – May, Commons.

Weekdays: Ordinary Time (6-34).

Proper of Saints: June – November, Commons.

Ritual Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, Votive Masses, Masses for the Dead.

How many editions will be produced?

There will be three different sizes of the lectionary: a full-size Ambo edition (the same size as the Altar Missal) – a smaller chapel edition (the same size as the Chapel Missal) and a study edition for liturgy preparation (the same size as the Study Missal).

How much money is the Lectionary likely to cost?

Print prices are volatile at the moment, but a full set will be several hundred pounds.

Will CTS be producing new people's missals?

CTS and other publishers will be producing people's Missals in due course including Sunday, Weekday and Daily Missals.
