Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We continue to hear from a number of parishioners invited by Fr. Jeremy and Fr. James to share a little about their faith, what's important to them and what has helped them grow in their relationship with Jesus. This week we hear from Ethan who attended the Fanning the Flame event at the end of August...

ETHAN, 12, Writes...

...about Fanning the Flame, Supercool T-Shirts, Legendary Lasagne and Everyday Mass

My experience at the Fanning the Flame camp was, without words, Amazing! It was the best experience of my whole life. The food was delicious, the people were really nice, we had Mass every day, which I thought was really awesome; I do not know a camp that celebrates Mass apart from this one.

There are places where you can buy supercool t-shirts that say TRANSFORMED on them. They also did night prayer, also known as Compline. Before Compline we had hot chocolate which was to warm up our vocal cords ready to give praise to the Lord. There were also workshops for us to have fun in.

They had things like inflatable football, history of the Church and rock climbing. And another great thing I must tell you about is the food. We had all sorts of foods like tasty chickenburgers and legendary lasagne. I also forgot to mention the Dominican Sisters of St Joseph. They are lovely and always giving lovely greetings.

There are also a series of fun talks; my favourite was probably the one about St Veronica. It was about the smell of sin and that through baptism we wash away that smell, just like when you or me go for a shower. It is absolutely wonderful and I would highly recommend you come to this camp as it is awesome [especially when Father Jeremy and Father James came].

So, if you have no plans for the summer please come to the Fanning the Flame summer camp which is celebrating its 30th anniversary next year.

All Catholic Churches in England and Wales are changing to the new translation of the Lectionary – the Book used for all Scripture Readings at Mass.

WHEN? The change will take place from the First Sunday of Advent (1st December 2024).

WHY? To make the text more faithful to the original language and easier to proclaim.

HOW? We are arranging sessions for new and all existing Readers to see it and try it out. For convenience, the sessions have been arranged spread over different weekday evenings and at weekends in the coming months to allow all Readers to attend. It is necessary for all Readers at Sunday Mass to attend before 1 December. Dates/Times available:

Wednesday 13 November 12:45-1.45pm at Sacred Heart

Wednesday 13 November 7-8pm at St Edmunds

Saturday 16 November 2-3pm at Sacred Heart

The Missals will not be available to buy from the parish shop. However, if anyone who doesn't have access to the internet would like a copy of the Sunday or Weekday Missal please contact Sue in the presbytery office.

Updated information from last weekend:

Fr. James has a couple of suggestions for anyone who would like the new translation sooner:

- The Magnificat <https://catholicherald.co.uk/magnificat/>

Compare the text of today's Gospel in the current JB version (left column) with the new version of the same text in forthcoming ESV (right column):

CURRENT VERSION Jerusalem Bible	FUTURE VERSION English Standard Version
John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us. 'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'	John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of me. For the one who is not against us is for us. "For truly I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward. "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung round his neck and he were thrown into the sea. And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched."

News from St. Peter's School

Headteacher, Richard Cunningham writes...

Pupils in Year 2 hosted our first family worship of the new school year this week at St Peter's. All 60 of the children presented to parents, grandparents and carers the creation story from the Book of Genesis and reminded us through Scripture and prayer of both mankind's need and responsibility to look after the environment. There was plenty of singing and lots of actions as the children took us through each day of the creation story, and Fr James enthralled the children with an example of the miracle of creation in a newborn baby that he had visited recently. This gave him the opportunity to remind the children that they are each individual and unique miracles of creation, loved by their school, by their families, and by God the Father.

Admittance to Hospital?

When a Catholic is admitted to hospital, the family should ensure that the Catholic Chaplaincy is contacted so that appropriate support can be given. It is suggested that the patient have a note to give to hospital staff on admission, notifying staff that they are Catholic and would appreciate the Catholic Chaplaincy service. This could be followed up by a telephone call from the family to the ward to ensure the request is actioned. When a person is due to go into hospital, please also let your parish priest know so that he can administer the Sacrament of the Sick where appropriate.

Please pray for those who need our prayers...

We pray for those who are ill in mind and body. May they find comfort and hope in the tender love of Jesus. We also pray for those who care for them, that they may be blessed with the gifts of gentleness and patience.

Homelessness Sunday

Homelessness Sunday will be remembered across churches in Britain in two weeks' time. You may wish to support this initiative by forwarding the draft letter below to the Secretary of State.

*Rt Hon Angela Rainer MP
Secretary Of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government
Marsham Street
SW1P 4SB*

Dear Secretary of State,

On Sunday 6th October, Churches across Britain will mark Homelessness Sunday. Many of those who stop to pause and pray, will be the same people who, a few short weeks later will form part of the army of volunteers who respond to homelessness in their communities in the coldest months, to save lives and to support people experiencing homelessness to live theirs to the full.

In England alone, non-commissioned, community-run night shelters provide more beds than London's biggest hospital. It is the scandal of our age, in the sixth richest nation on earth that these beds will be full for the winter months.

We welcome your government's commitment to get Britain back on track to ending homelessness. Community-based responses to homelessness will be integral to this, because as every person who has built a home for their family knows, we need a house to survive, but it is in communities in which we thrive.

Without working in a new way with community groups like the network of faith and community groups, night shelters, day centres and support groups, your government will not meet its commitment.

We ask you to work with us, because homelessness ends in communities.

As we approach the Comprehensive Spending Review and the development of the new Homelessness Strategy, we specifically ask that you;

- Work formally with night shelters, day centres and faith and community groups to develop the new, cross-departmental Homelessness Strategy.*
- Replace the Night Shelter Transformation Fund with an Ending Homelessness in Communities Fund, to support and expand the vital work of these groups and empower communities to end homelessness in their areas.*
- Mandate local authorities to work with these groups on the ground to develop their own strategies.*

Yours sincerely,
