17th November 2024, Thirty-third Sunday Year B

Parish Mass Book page 157 Prayer of the Church Week 1

At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people.

St Michael, among the angels with trumpets, holds the Book of the Chosen Ones in Michaelangelo's Last Judgement, in the Sistine Chapel, 1535 – 41

Daniel 12:1-3 We hear part of the prophet Daniel's vision about the end of time. It introduces the belief in a resurrection of the dead and in retribution after death.

Hebrews 10:11-14.18 This reading insists on the superiority of Christ's sacrifice over all the sacrifices of the Old Law.

Mark 13:24-32 This passage from the Gospel talks about the second coming of Christ, the time of which is known only to God.

Canon Gerard invites you to join him for coffee and cake after 10 am Mass next Sunday, 24th November. He celebrates the twenty-fifth anniversary of his priestly ordination, which was at Christ the King Church, Reading on 21st November 1999.

For Missio Red Box Supporters

Any boxes yet to be handed in for counting of contents, should if possible, be left with myself the Parish Office, please.

With thanks, Liam Hutchings, Promoter

The Year of Luke In Advent, starting soon, we proclaim, for many of the Sundays of the year, the Gospel according to St Luke. During November it would be a great idea to read the whole of this Gospel. The writing is very beautiful. St Luke includes fine songs such as the Magnificat. He is also said to have listened closely to Mary, Our Blessed Mother, as he wrote. He certainly writes with a sensitivity to the work of both women and men in Jesus' mission. He tells many of the parables which teach us so much about God. It could be best of all if several people shared the reading across a few sessions.

The Lectionary with a new translation will be used from the First Sunday of Advent. If you have any copies of any of the six editions of the previous Parish Mass Book at home please could you return them?

We are grateful to those parishioners who have helped towards the cost of the new volumes for the sanctuary and for the pews. If you wish to make a donation it would be very gratefully received.

We have a Christmas party!

Paskong Pinoy na sa Havant

7th December from 6 pm to 11 pm

All parishioners are welcome to attend; please bring food to share.

We are selling raffle tickets on the night. All money raised goes to our Parish.
