INTRODUCTION

This Ordo of the Diocese of Portsmouth is to be used in conjunction with:

The General Instruction of The Roman Missal (2002, translated into English and published by the Catholic Truth Society 2005) especially chapters 7 [The Choice of the Mass and its Parts] and 8 [Masses and Prayers for Various Circumstances],

The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar (1969), printed at the beginning of the Roman Missal,

The General Instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours, especially chapter 4 [Various Celebrations in the Course of the Year] which includes (sections 225-240) the arrangement of the Office on Solemnities, Feasts and Memorias, and is printed at the beginning of vol. I of the Divine Office, and of "Daily Prayer from the Divine Office".

It uses:

The General Roman Calendar including the latest additions found in the 3rd edition of the Missale Romanum,

The National Calendar for England, which is reproduced in this Ordo,

The Interim Version of Mass Texts for the Proper of the Diocese of Portsmouth. [The Diocesan Proper is currently out of print, but photocopies of individual pages can be provided on demand. Contact the Bishops' Secretary at Bishop's House].

In the case of some recently added celebrations, English translations of the prayer texts await approval by Rome, and in the interim texts from the Common must be used instead [as indicated in this Ordo].

Each parish or community may observe as a Solemnity the anniversary of consecration/dedication of its church, and/or the celebration of the titular saint of the church or titular saint, founder or principal patron of Order or Congregation [Table of Liturgical Days, no. 4], unless impeded by the coincidence of a celebration of higher rank, in which case the next available day must be used instead.

The Diocesan Prayer Intentions are arranged so that, as far as possible, each parish/community is listed on, or very close to, the anniversary date of original consecration/dedication of its church, or, if there is not such, the date of the celebration of its titular saint.

Certain Eucharistic Prayers (e.g. Eucharistic Prayer No. 4; Eucharistic Prayer for Various Needs and Occasions ["Swiss Synod"]; Eucharistic Prayers for Peace and Reconciliation) are used only with their own preface, and thus cannot be used in a Mass which has a preface proper to itself.

While these Eucharistic Prayers are particularly suitable for Ordinary Time, they may be used – with their own prefaces – in Masses of the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter which do not have a preface specific to the particular day. There would, however, be a good pastoral reason for choosing to use them for a Mass during one of these named seasons.

Where a preface must be used which precludes the saying of one of these Eucharistic Prayers, this is indicated in the Ordo by the note [E.P. I, II or III]

Holy Days of Obligation are indicated as for Sundays by the symbol † under the date; advance notice of the occurrence of a Holy Day of Obligation is given in this Calendar on the Saturday of the preceding week. Holy Days of Obligation in England and Wales are: The Epiphany of the Lord, The Ascension of the Lord, Corpus Christi [the last of these now celebrated on the nearest Sunday]; Saints Peter & Paul (Jun 29), the Assumption of Our Lady (Aug 15), All Saints (Nov 1), Christmas Day (Dec 25). With the exception of Christmas Day, if these last fall on a Saturday or Monday they are transferred to the adjacent Sunday.

Please report any errors or omissions to the Editors so that they may be corrected in future editions.

Reduced commemoration of saints during the privileged seasons of the year (i.e. Advent from December 17, Octave of Christmas, season of Lent):

In the Divine Office: at Office of Readings, after the second reading/responsory of the day, may be said the reading, responsory and prayer of the saint; at Morning & Evening Prayer, after the concluding prayer of the day, may be said the antiphon and prayer of the saint. [General Instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours no. 239]

At Mass: the Opening Prayer for the saint may be used instead of that for the day. [General Instruction of the Roman Missal no. 355a]

The Obituary date of Diocesan clergy is indicated on the relevant day. The list of deceased Religious clergy who served the Diocese is given at the back of the book.

NATIONAL CYCLE OF PRAYER

The National Cycle of prayer provides a series of prayer intentions according to the season of the year. While each intention is provided with a specific day (as noted in this Ordo), the intention is not restricted to that day, but may be included, as pastoral and liturgical circumstances allow, on other days within the relevant season. In addition, the intention may be reinforced by the use, as the liturgical calendar permits, of “Masses for Various Needs and Occasions” and Votive Masses, and also of other services besides Mass, e.g. Vigils, The Divine Office, Liturgy of the Word, Procession with Litany, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Cycle is as follows:-

ADVENT/CHRISTMAS:

Openness to the Word of God; Migrants & Refugees; Expectant Mothers.

ORDINARY TIME PRIOR TO LENT:

World Peace; Christian Unity; The Sick & their Carers; Racial Justice; The Unemployed; Victims of Human Trafficking and those who work to combat it

LENT:

Candidates for the Sacraments; Women; The Needy & Hungry of the World; Survivors of Sexual Abuse; Penitents

EASTERTIDE:

New Members of the Church; Vocations; The Right Use of the Media; The Church; Human Work

ORDINARY TIME JUNE-AUGUST:

A deeper Understanding between Christians & Jews; Those who suffer Persecution, Oppression & Denial of Human Rights; Europe; Human Life; Seafarers.

ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER-NOVEMBER:

The Spread of the Gospel; The Harvest, Fruits of Human Work & Reverent Use of Creation; Students & Teachers; War Victims; Young People; Prisoners & their Families; Justice and Peace

SHORT NOTES ON SAINTS RECENTLY ADDED TO THE GENERAL ROMAN & ENGLISH NATIONAL CALENDARS

January 12. St Aelred. Born in 1110, son of a priest, educated at Durham and in the household of King David of Scotland. In 1134 he became a monk, and later abbot, in the newly-founded Yorkshire Cistercian abbey of Rievaulx. Remembered for his gift of friendship, his sensitive and gentle rule, and for enduringly popular spiritual writings, especially on friendship. Died in 1167.

January 19. St Wulstan. Born in Warwickshire in 1008, became a Benedictine monk of the Cathedral Priory of Worcester; appointed bishop 1062 and one of the few Anglo-Saxons in high office to survive the Norman Conquest. Renowned as a confessor, for his care of poor and sick, and for the high standard he demanded of clergy. Died in 1095.

February 8. St Josephine Bakhita. A young Sudanese girl sold into slavery in the 19th century who came to Italy, and while serving as a nanny was sent to live with Canossian Sisters in Venice. There she was baptised and having reached majority age was granted freedom by Italian law; she joined the Canossian Daughters of Charity in 1896 and served humbly in their house at Schio, near Vicenza, dying in 1947 after a long and painful illness which reminded her of the chains of slavery in her childhood.

February 27. St Gregory of Narek. 951-1003. A monk of the Armenian church (the monastery which bore his name was destroyed in the genocide of 1915), mystic poet and theologian. His long "Book of Prayers" is the foundational poetic work of the Armenian language. He was declared a Doctor of the Church on February 21, 2015.

April 24. St Adalbert. Ordained bishop of Prague in 983, he encouraged the evangelisation of the Magyars. Later forced into exile by the nobility of Prague, he spread the Gospel in Poland, Hungary, Russia and Prussia, being martyred at Tenkitten [Prussia] in 997, aged 41.

April 28. St Louis Grignon de Montfort. Born at Montfort-la-Cane (Brittany) in 1673; ordained aged 27, deeply devoted to the Blessed Virgin as exemplified by his book "The Secret of the Rosary", the first work to describe the method by which the Rosary is prayed even to this day. Founded both a missionary band of men (Company of Mary) and a religious institute of women devoted to the poor (Congregation of the Daughters of Divine Wisdom). Died at Saint Laurent-sur-Sèvre (Vendée) in 1716.

May 10. St John of Avila. The bearer of an illustrious surname (De Ávila/Dávila), he did not come from the city of Saint Teresa. Born in 1500 in Almodóvar del Campo (New Castile, Spain), he first contemplated a legal career and then finding his vocation in the Church wished to offer himself for the mission in Mexico. Falling under the spell of the Archbishop of Seville, he became a prominent preacher the length and breadth of Andalusia, promoting the reform of the clergy and the just treatment of the poor. A major influence on Saint Teresa of Avila, he died in 1569, was canonised in 1970 and declared a Doctor of the Church on October 7 2012.

May 13. Our Lady of Fatima. Venerated under this title following the apparitions in 1917 to the three Portuguese shepherd children, Francisco and Jacinta Marto (both died 1919, now beatified) and Lúcia dos Santos (later a Carmelite nun, died 2005); the message of Fatima includes a call to conversion of heart, repentance from sin, and a dedication to the Blessed Virgin, especially through praying the Rosary.

May 19 (17). St Dunstan. Born near Glastonbury in 909, he studied secular arts and literature before becoming a monk and later abbot at Glastonbury. He was the principal agent in the restoration of English monasticism after the Viking devastations. Successively bishop of Worcester, bishop of London and archbishop of Canterbury, he was a man of many talents, renowned as painter, musician and metal-worker, as well as counsellor of kings and a zealous reforming bishop. He died in 988.

May 21. St Christopher Magallanes & Companions. 22 diocesan clergy and three laymen, all members of the so-called 'Cristero' movement, who rebelled against the anti-Catholic Mexican government in the Revolution of the 1920's. Saint Christopher founded an illicit seminary at Totatiche; before his death (1927) he declared his innocence, forgave his captors, and prayed that the shedding of his blood might serve the peace of a divided Mexico.

May 22. St Rita of Cascia. Born in 1381 in Roccaporena, Umbria, Italy, she married and had two sons. After her husband's violent murder, she urged forgiveness rather than pursuing the customary vendetta. She was repeatedly denied entrance to a convent of Augustinian nuns through fear of revenge by her husband's relatives, but her personal intercession secured peace, and she began 40 years of prayer, contemplation, and service of sick and poor; towards the end of her life she received a mystical wound on her person. She died in 1457.

June 9. St Columba [Colm Cille]. Born Gartan (Co. Donegal) in 521, of royal lineage, he studied under Finnian of Moville and Finnian of Clonard. Before leaving Ireland as an 'exile for Christ', he founded monasteries at Derry, Durrow and possibly Kells. From Iona, where he died in 597, he converted much of western Scotland, and his followers took the Gospel to northern England. He was renowned as poet and scribe as well as spiritual guide, and in Gaelic literature appears as Ireland's most popular saint, noted for great personal love of all creatures, human and animal.

June 16. St Richard of Chichester. Born Droitwich in 1197, son of a farmer, he attended the universities of Oxford, Paris and Bologna and was 45 when ordained. Appointed bishop of Chichester two years later, royal opposition prevented him taking over the see until 1247. Until then he lived in a priest's house, visiting the parishes of the diocese on foot. Remembered for his generosity to the poor, mercy to sinners and the reform of the liturgical life of his diocese. He died at Dover 3 April 1253.

June 23. St Etheldreda [Audrey]. Born Suffolk in the early 7th century, she was married twice, but in 672 by agreement left her second husband, the king of Northumbria, to become a nun. The following year she founded a monastery of women and men, of which she was abbess, on the site of the present Ely Cathedral. The most venerated of Anglo-Saxon women saints, she was renowned for her dedication to a life of chastity and for the austerity of her personal life. She died in 679.

July 1. St Oliver Plunkett. Born Co. Meath in 1625, he was ordained in Rome in 1654, and a professor at the college of Propaganda Fide until 1669 when appointed archbishop of Armagh; he held synods and visitations and promoted the reforms initiated by the Council of Trent. Imprisoned in Dublin in 1679, he was tried, condemned and executed at Tyburn in 1681, the final victim of the 'Popish Plot' and the last person to be executed for the faith in England. He is remembered for his pastoral zeal and for the friendly relations he established with those who did not share the Catholic faith. His body rests at Downside Abbey, his head at Drogheda.

July 9. St Augustine Zhao Rong & Companions. Martyrs of China throughout the period 1648-1930; St. Augustine himself was a Chinese diocesan priest martyred with 119 companions, including an 18-year old boy, Chi Zhuzi, in 1815.

July 20. St Apollinaris. Early accounts report that he was ordained bishop by Saint Peter himself and sent as a missionary bishop to Ravenna during the reign of the emperor Claudius. Renowned for his powers to heal in the name of Christ, he was frequently exiled, tortured and imprisoned for the faith, and finally martyred (early 2nd cent.?)

July 24. St Charbel Makhluf. A Lebanese Maronite monk, born at Bqak-Kafra in 1828 and ordained in 1858. Devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary, he spent the last 23 years of his life as a hermit attached to the monastery of Annaya and was much sought after for counsel and blessing, and as an intercessor for peace. He died on Christmas Eve, 1898.

August 2. St Peter Julian Eymard. Born at La Mure d'Isère [Grenoble] in France in 1811 he became a parish priest in 1834 and joined the Marists five years later. He fostered Eucharistic adoration throughout his life and in 1856 founded in Paris a religious order of priest-adorers of the Holy Eucharist who came to be known as the Priests of the Blessed Sacrament. He died at La Mure in 1868.

August 9. St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. Edith Stein was born of Jewish parents in 1891, becoming an influential philosopher following her extensive studies at major German universities. Converting to Catholicism she became a major force in German intellectual life, entering the Discalced Carmelites in 1933. She was arrested by the Nazi regime in 1942 along with many Catholics of Jewish extraction, and transported by cattle train to the death camp of Auschwitz, dying there in that same year.

August 30. Ss Margaret Clitherow, Anne Line & Margaret Ward. Margaret [Middleton] was born in York in 1556, married the butcher John Clitherow aged 15 and became a Catholic three years later. She taught herself to read and later ran a small school for her own and her neighbours' children. Her husband was not a Catholic, but allowed her to hide priests in their house; these hiding places were discovered, and as she refused to plead at her trial, she was crushed to death on 25 March 1586. Anne [Heigham] was born in Dunmow, Essex, around 1565, becoming a Catholic in her teens and being disinherited; in 1585 she married Roger Line, also a disinherited convert, subsequently exiled for her faith, leaving her destitute. Her house was also used for the saying of Mass, and for this she was arrested, tried and condemned to death at Tyburn on 27 February 1601. Margaret Ward was born in Congelton, Cheshire, entering the service of a London family. Arrested after assisting a priest escape from prison, she refused despite torture to reveal his hiding place or renounce her faith. Tried at the Old Bailey, she was executed on this day in 1588.

August 31. St Aidan & All Saints of Lindisfarne. Aidan was born in Ireland, and as a monk of Iona was sent to Northumberland when King Oswald asked for help in converting his kingdom; he established his monastery on the island of Lindisfarne. Assisted by King Oswald, and later King Oswy, he preached the Gospel, founded churches and monasteries, and liberated slaves throughout the kingdom. Since the testimony of Bede, he has been venerated for his simplicity and poverty, for his love of prayer and the Scriptures, and for his care of the sick and poor. With him are remembered who made Lindisfarne a cradle of English Christianity. He died at Bamburgh in 651.

September 4. St Cuthbert. Born about 634, traditionally believed to have been a shepherd boy, he became a monk and later prior at Melrose; after the Synod of Whitby in 664, he became prior at Lindisfarne, and gradually won the community over to the Roman customs. Zealous in preaching the Gospel, he was nevertheless most deeply attracted to the life of a hermit, and in 676 left the monastery to live in solitude on the island of Inner Farne. For the last two years of his life he served as bishop of Lindisfarne, but returned to his island to die on March 20 687. His uncorrupt remains were removed from Lindisfarne to escape Viking raiders, and were eventually enshrined at Durham (today is the anniversary of the translation of his remains). Remembered as the most popular of the Anglo-Saxon saints of northern England.

September 9. St Peter Claver. A Jesuit missionary of the 17th century who ministered to African slaves as they arrived in the South American seaport of Cartagena. Enduring the derision of slave traders, he fed the hungry, cared for the sick and dying, preached the Gospel and baptised converts for over 40 years until his death there in 1654.

September 17. St Hildegard of Bingen. Born 1098 (?), this Renaissance woman ahead of her time was a Benedictine nun, foundress and abbess, latterly at Bingen, near Mainz (the modern abbey there is a revival from 1904); visionary, illustrator, composer, correspondent with major figures of Europe in Church and State, writer on nature and herbal medicine, inventor of an alternative alphabet and itinerant preacher, as well as unwitting mascot of the modern feminist movement, she died at Bingen in 1179. Never formally canonised; her cult was extended to all the church in May 2012, and she was declared a Doctor of the Church on 7 October 2012.

September 19. St Theodore of Canterbury. A Greek by birth (601), a native of Tarsus in Turkey, he became a monk in Italy and was appointed archbishop of Canterbury by Pope Vitalian in 666 at the age of 65 and when he was not yet ordained priest. He arrived in England in 669, and for the rest of his life reorganised and reformed the life of the Church throughout the country, holding visitations and synods, establishing new dioceses and a great school at Canterbury, and reconciling divisions between those of the Celtic and those of the Roman tradition. He is remembered for his scholarship and for his bringing unity and organisation to a divided church. He died at Canterbury in 690.

September 23. St Pio of Pietrelcina. 'Padre Pio' was born in 1887 in the small Italian village of Pietrelcina; he joined the Capuchin friars at the age of 16 and was ordained priest seven years later. For 50 years at the monastery of S. Giovanni Rotondo he was much sought after as a spiritual adviser, confessor and intercessor whose life was devoted to the Eucharist and prayer, and famed for his possession of the stigmata. Nevertheless he would often say: "I only want to be a poor friar who prays". He died in 1968.

September 24. Our Lady of Walsingham. The lady of the manor of Walsingham, Richeldis de Faverches, was instructed by a vision of Our Lady to build in her village an exact replica of the house in Nazareth in which the Annunciation had taken place. This vision is believed to date from 1061, though experts believe the construction a shrine took place some 100 years later. The original house was destroyed at the Reformation, but during the 19th and early 20th centuries pilgrimage to Walsingham was revived.

September 28. St Lawrence Ruiz & Companions. He was a devoted husband and father of three children in the Philippines during the 17th century. After he was unjustly accused of murder, he fled with Christian missionaries to Japan, where he was tortured for the faith and died professing: "I shall die for God, and for him I would give many thousands of lives if I had them". He and the others died at Nagasaki at different dates between 1633 and 1637.

October 5. St Faustina Kowalska. Born in 1905 at Glogowiec, near Łódź in Poland, one of ten children, she entered religious life, after many obstacles, in 1926. Never endowed with good health, she received the awarenesses which have caused her to be given the title "Secretary of Divine Mercy". She died in Kraków in 1938.

October 10. St Paulinus of York. He was among the second group of monks sent to England by Pope Saint Gregory the Great in 601. After working for 20 years in Kent, he was ordained bishop and sent to Northumbria as chaplain to the Christian princess Ethelburga, who was to marry the pagan king Edwin. By 627 he was able to baptise the king – Bede tells the story of the exhausted sparrow that flew from a storm into the king's banqueting chamber, and served as a 'living parable' for Paulinus in his attempts to convert Edwin – and many of his nobles, but before he received the pallium as archbishop of York, Northumbria was overrun by pagans in 633, and he returned to Kent, serving as bishop of Rochester for his remaining years and dying in 644.

October 26. Ss Chad & Cedd. Two brothers educated at Lindisfarne under Aidan; Cedd was the founder of many monasteries and was sent as a bishop to evangelise the East Saxons, establishing his see at Bradwell, Essex. He died of the plague at his monastery at Lastingham, N. Yorkshire, on 26 October 664. Chad was abbot of Lastingham when chosen bishop of Northumbria, but his ordination was contested by Wilfrid, and he humbly withdrew. He was then sent as bishop to Mercia, where he founded the see of Lichfield. Despite the shortness of his ministry, he was immediately revered as a saint through his holy living, humility and dedication to preaching the Gospel; he died at Lichfield on 2 March 672.

November 3. St Winefride. Most of her "Lives" are untrustworthy legends, though she lived in the 6th or 7th century near Treffynon (Holywell) in Clwyd, and was the niece of St. Beuno. According to one remarkable version, she was beheaded by a prince whose advances she refused and springs of water sprang up at the place of her martyrdom, but restored to life by her uncle to live on many years as a nun. Her cult has been widespread since the Middle Ages, centred at Shrewsbury where her remains were enshrined in 1138, and her well at Holywell, a place of healing and pilgrimage through penal times to the present day.

November 7. St Willibrord. Born in Yorkshire in 658, he was a pupil of Wilfrid before studying for 12 years at Rathmelsige in Ireland, being ordained priest there. After returning to England, he was sent out in 690 to evangelise Frisia; he was ordained bishop by Pope Sergius in 695, and founded the metropolitan see of Utrecht (Netherlands). He preached the Gospel in north Germany and Denmark, founding several dioceses and monasteries in the Netherlands and Luxembourg. He was the first of the great Anglo-Saxon missionaries to Europe, remembered not just for his devotion to preaching the Gospel, but also for his joyfulness of character and holiness of life. He died at Echternach (Luxembourg) in 739.

November 17. St Hilda. Born in Northumbria in 614, she was baptised by Paulinus and became a nun at the age of 33, eventually becoming abbess of Hartlepool before moving to the double monastery of Whitby, which under her leadership became a great centre of learning, literature and the arts. Renowned for her wisdom, she was consulted by kings and bishops alike. She hosted at her monastery the decisive synod of 664; though herself sympathetic to the Celtic tradition, she loyally accepted the synod's decision, which decided that the Church in England would follow Roman customs. She died at Whitby in 680.

November 17. St Hugh of Lincoln. Born near Grenoble about 1140, he entered the Grande Chartreuse at the age of 25, but in 1175 was asked by King Henry II to become prior of the Carthusian house of Witham in Somerset. A decade later he was appointed bishop of Lincoln, only accepting on the direct command of the prior of the Grande Chartreuse. He spent the rest of his life in ceaseless work about his diocese, the largest in the country. A friend and critic of successive kings, he delegated much authority, and worked with his own hands on the extension of his cathedral. He gained a reputation for justice, for the care of the sick, and for the support of the oppressed, including the Jewish community for whom he risked his life. He died in London on 16 November 1200, and was canonised in 1220, the first Carthusian to be so honoured.

November 25. St Catherine of Alexandria. A learned woman of the early 4th century who, following her conversion at the age of 18, preached the Gospel throughout Alexandria. While imprisoned by the emperor Maxentius, she converted both the empress and the leader of the armed forces, and for this was martyred.

December 9/12. St John Diego Cuahltlatatzin. He was the Aztec Indian who received in his rustic cloak or tilma the image of Our Lady venerated in the shrine of Guadalupe (Dec 12) in the northern outskirts of Mexico City. He is believed to have died in 1548.

The Decalogue<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup> 20 Then God spoke all these words. He said, •'I am Yahweh your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

<sup>4</sup> 'You shall not make yourself a carved image or any likeness of anything
<sup>5</sup> in heaven or on earth beneath or in the waters under the earth; •you shall not bow down to them or serve them. For I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God and I punish the father's fault in the sons, the grandsons, and the great-grandsons
<sup>6</sup> of those who hate me; •but I show kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>7</sup> 'You shall not utter the name of Yahweh your God to misuse it,<sup>b</sup> for Yahweh will not leave unpunished the man who utters his name to misuse it.

<sup>9</sup> 'Remember the sabbath day and keep it holy. •For six days you shall labour
<sup>10</sup> and do all your work, •but the seventh day is a sabbath for Yahweh your God. You shall do no work that day, neither you nor your son nor your daughter nor your servants, men or women, nor your animals nor the stranger who lives
<sup>11</sup> with you. •For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that these hold, but on the seventh day he rested; that is why Yahweh has blessed the sabbath day and made it sacred.

<sup>12</sup> 'Honour your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that Yahweh your God has given to you.

<sup>17</sup> 'You shall not covet your neighbour's house. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or his servant, man or woman, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is his.'
