FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

12/13 July 2025

Fr Anthony Fyk's Liturgical Notes from Liturgy Project website

Sometimes in life we might seem lost. It might be walking or driving to a new place. Maybe we lack a certain direction which our life is going in. Or maybe in our relationship with God and others it appears uncertain, and at times, we might be frankly lost. Thank goodness we have Satnavs on our phones or in our cars to show us the direction we need go to get to our final destination. We might have trusted friends or family members we can speak to when our life's direction seems lost. In our relationship with God, although it might seem we are lost, God is always there. In today's Collect we pray for God's direction. God shows us the right path to take, to shows us the light of his truth. Even though we may go astray at times, God directs us to return to the right path. Sometimes in life we make wrong decisions, we go off the beaten path and reject what is contrary to the Beatitudes and the Commandments of Love of God and each other. But the merciful and loving God, whom we profess in faith and trust, gently guides us back on the right path. God's grace goes before us, guides us, and brings us to our final destination. All we have to do is trust in the good Lord, for as today's Communion Antiphon reminds us – "the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise." During the celebration of the liturgy, and in our reception of the Eucharist, Christ abides in us and we abide in him. He gives us meaning and direction in life. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remain in me and I in him, says the Lord."

News from St Peter's School

Headmaster

Richard Cunningham writes...

Congratulations to the pupils of Year 6 at St Peter's for their incredible production of Mary Poppins Junior this week. After just five weeks of rehearsal, the pupils were able to put on an incredible show to the lower school and then upper school during the day time, and then two consecutive evening performances for families and friends. Enormous thanks go to the staff and many volunteers who helped in the preparations for this musical theatre masterpiece!

Most of us will know by now that a certain, much loved, person will be leaving us shortly for a well-earned retirement, but not before celebrating 50 years of priesthood and service. The shop has cards for both occasions so do please 'hotfoot it along' before the rush starts! Look forward to seeing you there, and as always, for much needed catch up chats. 😊
