SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

19/20 July 2025

Fr. James writes...

Dear friends,

It was a great joy to celebrate the first of Fr Jeremy's Golden Anniversary Events last Sunday. Thank you as always to the large parish team that made this event possible. The Excelsis Choir, under the leadership of Robert Lewis, were on great form. We were introduced to a new protégé in the soprano, John Stoneham, who sang a number of Fr Jeremy's favourite pieces. Tamsin Stevens, one of our parishioners also returned to the stage with great gusto and wowed us all.

As was shared at our Masses last weekend, Bishop Philip has requested, with Fr Jeremy's sad departure, that I take on the leadership of Sacred Heart, St Edmunds and St Michael's, Leigh Park. He has also asked me to continue as Catholic Chaplain at the hospital and oversee our local schools. Whilst I am excited about building on the wonderful legacy of Fr Jeremy, it is still quite a daunting task so please keep me in your prayers. I am delighted that I will be ably supported by Fr Tom Hiney who will be joining us in September. Tom was ordained a Catholic Priest, last Summer. He comes with a wealth of life experience and, most importantly, great faith and love of our Lord. I am sure he will settle in quickly and be warmly welcomed by all of you.
