Jubilee Year 2025

Following the Pope's successful jubilee celebrations, a highlight of this holy year was the week-long Jubilee of Youth, which was a significant undertaking for young pilgrims in Rome. The Pope's message was one of encouragement—urging us to spread our enthusiasm and to bear witness to our faith in all we do. We have prayer cards available for you to take and pray with. These official prayer cards allow pilgrims from around the world to use the same heartfelt words to express gratitude to God for the Jubilee experience and to seek His grace and forgiveness. Let us continue to pray for the spirit of unity and faith inspired by this blessed time.

Mass Intentions

If you would like to request a Mass Intention, please call in at the Parish Office, Mon to Fri 10am to 12 noon, phone, or e-mail: office@aldershot-catholics.uk

Father will now mention the names of those for whom the mass intentions are being offered. Please extend him grace, as he will do his best to ensure the correct pronunciation of each name. Your patience and understanding are appreciated as he endeavours to honour each person with care and respect

Traditionally the parish priest lives on the offerings from the parish. Mass intentions is one of the ways to support the income of the parish priest.

Please contact the parish office if you would like to have a Mass said.
