TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

6/7 SEPTEMBER 2025

Fr. Tom Hiney writes...

I worked as a freelance journalist and author for several years, writing for The Sunday Times, The Spectator, and The Observer. During that time, I also wrote a biography of the American novelist Raymond Chandler and a non-fiction book called On the Missionary Trail, which was serialised on Radio 4.

In my late 20s, while based in South Africa, I began to reexplore the Christian faith of my childhood, and eventually (in my mid-30s) returned to the UK, where I attended Anglican seminary, later working as a British Army chaplain.

After being received into the Catholic Church in 2020 by Bishop Philip, I was sent to Rome for four years. I was ordained as a Catholic priest last year and have been working at the Cathedral. I am passionate about teaching the Catholic Faith and, when I have time, am still writing.

Fr. Tom will be moving into the parish this week and begin celebrating Masses next weekend – be sure to say 'Hi' if you see him around!

Alpha 2025-26

It is very exciting to have alpha courses beginning at Sacred Heart, Waterlooville, (Monday 29th) and St Michael's Leigh Park, (Tuesday 30th) between 7 and 9pm Alpha is wonderful for anyone who has questions, is seeking to grow in their faith or wants to experience a greater sense of belong in our communities.

The Alpha course sessions will take place for 10 weeks. Each evening begins with a delicious hot meal and opportunities for developing new friendships. This is followed by an engaging presentation on the Christian faith and the opportunity, in small groups, to share your thoughts and raise questions in a supportive and non-judgemental environment. If you haven't done alpha before and feel this could be a good opportunity for you, please email alpha@waterlooville-catholic.org.uk to register and find out more.

NOTICES & FUTURE EVENTS ...

Bill to legalise Assisted Suicide

Archbishop John Sherrington, the Lead Bishop for Life Issues, has issued a statement about the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill which is about to go before the House of Lords

As the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill is being considered at length in the House of Lords, we reiterate our firm opposition to the bill in principle and in practice. Despite being described by proponents as the safest of its kind, the bill remains unworkable. It puts the safety of our healthcare institutions, professionals, and patients at risk. The Bill threatens the future of care homes and hospices that would not otherwise provide assisted suicide, as doing so would violate their core mission and ethical principles. The House of Commons rejected an amendment which would allow employers to prevent their employees from facilitating assisted suicide. www.thecatholicherald.com/article/religious-orders-may-be-forced-out-of-care-homes-by-assisted-suicide-bill Cardinal Nichols and I previously noted that "a right to assisted suicide given to individuals is highly likely to become a duty on care homes and hospices to facilitate it." www.cbcew.org.uk/future-of-many-care-homes-and-hospices-in-doubt-if-assisted-suicide-legalised/ As a result, there is a real danger that some care homes and hospices may be forced to significantly limit or even fully withdraw their services.

Inadequate conscience clause

The bill undermines the duty of care of healthcare professionals by permitting them to help patients to end their lives, fundamentally changing the relationship between the medical professional and the patient. www.ourdutyofcare.org.uk/declaration/ Furthermore, as the Catholic Medical Association (CMA) has stated, the bill's conscience clause is not adequate, despite assurances from the bill's proponents. www.cbcew.org.uk/cma-statement-on-conscience-protections-in-tia-bill/ Many doctors will effectively be unable to opt out of cooperating with the procedure, because of the duty to direct patients to information and to where they can have a preliminary discussion.

Putting vulnerable patients at risk

This bill puts the lives of vulnerable patients at risk due to inadequate safeguards against coercion. Evidence from other jurisdictions indicates that patients often feel pressured to choose assisted suicide because they feel as though they are a burden on those caring for them. In addition, countries such as Canada demonstrate that wherever assisted suicide is initially introduced for a limited group, the criteria quickly expand to include the non-terminally ill, and soon those without mental capacity. www.theconversation.com/assisted-dying-canada-grapples-with-plans-to-extend-euthanasia-to-people-suffering-solely-from-mental-illness-230129 Moreover, introducing assisted suicide does not reduce the overall number of suicides. www.righttolife.org.uk/news/overall-suicide-numbers-increase-when-assisted-suicide-and-euthanasia-made-legal-research-suggests

Priority must be given to the provision of palliative care which, though excellent where provided, is patchy in terms of its provision around the country. The legalisation of assisted suicide will inevitably further undermine the resourcing of palliative care. Where such provision is absent, individuals will inevitably feel pressured to end their lives.

A call to prayer and action

We continue to call for prayer and action. I urge you to contact members of the House of Lords and in particular share your personal or professional experience on this important matter. A link on how to contact members of the House of Lords can be found here www.cbcew.org.uk/how-to-write-to-peers-in-the-house-of-lords/

Season of Creation 1 September – 4 October

The World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, which was celebrated on 1 September is the official start of the Season of Creation, a time of sustained prayer and action which lasts a month and four days. During this season we are encouraged to pray and engage in community events in order to deepen our relationship with God, our neighbour and the earth we share, being ever more attentive to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.

On the 30th June the Vatican said the theme of this World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, chosen by our beloved Pope Francis, is 'Seeds of Peace and Hope'. On the tenth anniversary of the establishment of this Day of Prayer, which coincided with the publication of the encyclical Laudato Si', we find ourselves celebrating the present Jubilee as 'Pilgrims of Hope'. This year's theme thus appears most timely. May it continue to inspire us and integral ecology be increasingly accepted as the right path to follow. In this way, seeds of hope will multiply, to be "tilled and kept" by the grace of our great and unfailing Hope, who is the risen Christ. Philip Hayllar

How your CAFOD donations make a difference

Jo Lewry invites you to come and hear about how your donations to CAFOD are making a difference to communities in Ethiopia.

On Saturday 20th September from 10:30am to 1:30pm there will be a CAFOD meeting at St Bedes Church Hall Basingstoke RG24 9DX for CAFOD volunteers and supporters - everyone is welcome. A simple lunch will be provided so to help with catering please book your place by emailing Jo on jlewry@cafod.org.uk Jo Kitterick CAFOD's Director of Fundraising and Participation will be talking about our work with partners in Southern Ethiopia and sharing Waré's story.

Once, rains fell reliably, fields were green, and water was close by but now the seasons in Ethiopia are unpredictable, and long droughts are forcing women like Waré to walk for hours each day just to find water for drinking, washing, and livestock.

"It was very traumatising," Waré says. "When I was pregnant, I had to go fetch water in the mountains. Sometimes I felt so weak I could fall down, so I worried about my child."

Yet, Waré refused to give up. Guided by her own faith and uniting with her neighbours, she took action. With support from CAFOD and local water expert Abbiott, they built an underground water tank to collect and store every precious drop of rain. Now, over 300 families have safe, clean water just a few steps from their homes. I look forward to seeing you at our meeting on 20th September.
