TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

20/21 SEPTEMBER 2025

Fr. Tom writes...

Some of you may know the story of Sister Clare Crockett. If not, I would urge you to watch her story on YouTube: All or Nothing: Sister Clare Crockett. Just before Christmas, a diocese in Spain formally opened the cause for her Canonisation (hence her now being formally known as a 'Servant of God'). If she is declared a Saint, it will be the most extraordinary turn of events for this former actress, TV presenter and party girl from Derry in Northern Ireland.

A book produced by her congregation, the Servant Sisters of the Home of the Mother, Sr. Clare: Alone with Christ Alone, is even more moving. There, we have the depth of a remarkable woman's holiness, and proof that the lives of saints are invariably full of battles invisible to the rest of us, in the intensity of which they draw ever closer to God. The joy we see in the documentary, and the testimonies of her charisma we hear from those touched by her life, are all the more heroic when we read her correspondence with her spiritual director.

In April 2106, she was killed in an earthquake in rural Ecuador, where she was working at a mission school. "Long live the magnanimous souls that seek only God's glory!" she once wrote, and this truly was her life. Rather than subduing the vibrant personality that had catapulted her from humble origins to the verge of international movie stardom, that vibrancy became sanctified. Even when she yearned to be alone, suffering as she did from migraines, she literally gave everything to God, including her personality, and humour.

In the film, mostly made up of video clips taken on phones over the thirteen years of her religious life, we see grace literally take her over. By the end, despite her tiredness, she was beautiful in a way that the movie industry, with all its make-up and costume and lighting, could never have made her, glowing from the inside out. Around 8m people have already watched this film in English or Spanish, and that will only grow as her Cause continues, and her story spreads. It is a very special story about a very special soul.

Second Collection this weekend for Home Missions

Evangelii Gaudium Sunday (formally known as Home Mission Sunday) is observed annually on the third Sunday of September. It is a day dedicated to proclaiming the joyful message of the Gospel—a message that brings hope and transformation to all who receive it with an open heart.

This year, the Church commemorates a significant milestone: the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea. This historic gathering of bishops laid the foundation for the creed we profess each Sunday, a creed that expresses the core of our faith and mission—to know and love God in this life, in order to be happy with Him forever in the next. The creed begins with the powerful declaration, “I believe,” which serves as the theme for Evangelii Gaudium Sunday 2025.

This special Sunday highlights the Church's evangelisation efforts at both parish and diocesan levels. It offers a theme and resources for reflection, and encourages each parish to hold a collection to support the national work of evangelisation through the Directorate for Mission.

There will be a second collection at all Masses this weekend. For anyone who would like to donate online, please copy and paste this link into your browser:

CAFOD Family Fast Day Appeal this Harvest

Jo Lewry from CAFOD Portsmouth writes...

Please donate to our Family Fast Day parish collection to share God's abundant gifts with our global neighbours as they find lasting solutions to poverty and climate challenges. Your generosity offers 'signs of hope' in this Jubilee Year, helping build more water tanks in communities like Waré's in Ethiopia where women have to walk for hours to get water. Use the CAFOD envelope in church, donate online at www.cafod.org.uk/envelope or call 0303 303 3030. You can also text CAFOD to 70560 to donate £10.

Jo Lewry invites you to come and hear about how your donations to CAFOD are making a difference to communities in Ethiopia...

On Saturday 20th September from 10:30am to 1:30pm there will be a CAFOD meeting at St Bedes Church Hall Basingstoke RG24 9DX for CAFOD volunteers and supporters - everyone is welcome. A simple lunch will be provided so to help with catering please book your place by emailing Jo on jlewy@cafod.org.uk Jo Kitterick CAFOD's Director of Fundraising and Participation will be talking about our work with partners in Southern Ethiopia and sharing Waré's story.

Once, rains fell reliably, fields were green, and water was close by but now the seasons in Ethiopia are unpredictable, and long droughts are forcing women like Waré to walk for hours each day just to find water for drinking, washing, and livestock.

"It was very traumatising," Waré says. "When I was pregnant, I had to go fetch water in the mountains. Sometimes I felt so weak I could fall down, so I worried about my child."

Yet, Waré refused to give up. Guided by her own faith and uniting with her neighbours, she took action. With support from CAFOD and local water expert Abbott, they built an underground water tank to collect and store every precious drop of rain. Now, over 300 families have safe, clean water just a few steps from their homes. I look forward to seeing you at our meeting on 20th September.

Gentlemen's Bereaved lunch Club

Jesus Prince of Peace Parish Music Ministry Team

Marijke Miles writes... We are delighted to share with you that we have a new, central contact for our new Parish music network. From now on, all communications will come from this address and this is a new opportunity for anyone (not just leaders and co-ordinators) who is interested in being involved in future events, rehearsals planning meetings, sharing of knowledge and resources and so on to register their interest and be added to distribution lists and our database of musical activity across the Parish. Please send an email with the subject line Expression of Interest to music@jesusprinceofpeace.org.uk and you will receive a link to a simple Microsoft Form which, once completed, will ensure that you are included in future information sharing. This is not a one-off opportunity. You can always invite and encourage new arrivals and newly interested Parishioners to use this email address to get involved. We look forward to hearing from you!

Season of Creation | September – 4 October

The World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, which was celebrated on 1 September is the official start of the Season of Creation, a time of sustained prayer and action which lasts a month and four days. During this season we are encouraged to pray and engage in community events in order to deepen our relationship with God, our neighbour and the earth we share, being ever more attentive to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.

On the 30th June the Vatican said the theme of this World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, chosen by our beloved Pope Francis, is 'Seeds of Peace and Hope'. On the tenth anniversary of the establishment of this Day of Prayer, which coincided with the publication of the encyclical Laudato Si', we find ourselves celebrating the present Jubilee as 'Pilgrims of Hope'. This year's theme thus appears most timely. May it continue to inspire us and integral ecology be increasingly accepted as the right path to follow. In this way, seeds of hope will multiply, to be "tilled and kept" by the grace of our great and unfailing Hope, who is the risen Christ. Philip Hayllar

Mass for the Sick

St Edmund, Horndean, would like to extend a warm welcome to everyone in Jesus Prince of Peace Parish for a special Mass with the Sacrament of the Sick on Saturday 11 October @ 12noon. Lunch in the hall afterwards and for catering reasons please email Sue on office@waterlooville-catholic.org.uk if you wish to attend. They will be collecting donations which go towards the cost of the lunch, and any money left over at the end of the year goes to charities like CAFOD, Stella Maris and Aid to the Church in Need. Previously, your donations have also helped families in Ukraine. This Christmas, the parish will be sending all profits to the Rowans Hospice.

News from St Peter's Catholic Primary School

Headteacher, Richard Cunningham writes...

The children from Years 1 to 6 gathered together this week to celebrate Mass, and mark the start of a new school year as a Catholic community. Fr James was welcomed into school and his Homily focused on how we can show our love for God and our love for our neighbours with kind, helpful and thoughtful actions towards those around us. It can get hot in a school hall with over 400 children and around 40 staff gathered for Mass, but this week we benefitted from new heat-reflecting windows that have been installed in the school hall over the summer thanks to support from the Diocese. Work continues to keep the school insulated during the winter, yet protected from summer heat, as St Peter's commits to being a responsible and ethical user of energy in the modern world.

Jubilarians' Mass

From the latest edition of the Diocese of Portsmouth News, Bishop Philip writes...

Last Tuesday, 9th September, I offered Mass in the Cathedral for those priests who are celebrating this year a significant anniversary. It was a special joy to welcome Bishop Crispian who this year is celebrating his sixtieth anniversary of ordination as a priest.

This year, 2025, is the 65th jubilee of Canon David Mahy with us today and the diamond anniversary of Bishop Crispian and Fr. John Doran. As Fr. John is unwell, he's unable to be with us, so please pray for him. 2025 also marks the Golden Jubilee of Mgr. Jeremy Garratt. It would have been Fr. Vincent Convery's 50th anniversary too but he died earlier this year: may he rest in peace. It's the Ruby Jubilee of Fr. Joe Gruszkiewicz and the Silver Jubilee of Fr. Chris Whelan. So, there's a lot of valuable, precious metal around this year – 300 years' worth – and some of it is glistening today here in the sanctuary.
